PAVING PROJECTS CONSIDERED AT IMPORTANT COUNCIL MEETING

Grade Ordinances Likewise Come up For Consideration at Adjourned Session

TWO STREETS TO BE PAVED

First Street From McKean to Fallowfield and Eighth Street From McKean to Railroad Will be Improved if Ordinances Pass.

With all but two members of council present, an important adjourned meeting of council was held Friday night at the council chambers, when paving projects were considered as well as matters of grades for two streets.

Grades were definitely established for Seventh street from Lincoln avenue to Meadow avenue, and from Meadow avenue from First street to Tenth street. The ordinances for these which were first introduced in council a month ago passed second and third readings. Burgess S. L.
Woodward signed them this morning.

First street from McKean avenue to Fallowfield avenue and Eighth street from McKean avenue to the Pennsylvania Railroad line will be paved if ordinances finally go through which were introduced Friday evening, and which passed first reading.
They will be taken up again a month hence. The two streets are among the last down town to be considered.

Borough Clerk Ira L. Nickeson was instructed to advertise for bids for the building of a retaining wall, for the resetting of a portion of street at corner of First street and Lincoln avenue. Bids must be in by April 6. The work is made necessary by the change in the street to reduce the curve at this point. The borough found it necessary to purchase a small tract there within the last few months in order that a dangerous curve might be removed.

President D. R. Duval was in the chair and the members of council present were: W. R. Gaut, J. K.
Mitchell, D. R. Hornell and S. A.
Michener. Councilmen J. K. Rickey and C. W. Weltner were unable to attend.

Notice.

Sealed bids will be received by the Borough Clerk of Charleroi for building a retaining wall, re-setting curb and re-paving at corner of First alley and Lincoln avenue. Plans and specifications may be seen at the borough engineers' office. All bids must be in on or before the 6th day of April at 8 o'clock p. m., 1914.
Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Ira L. Nickeson,
Borough Clerk.

THROUGH TRAIN SERVICE DELAYED

Pennsylvania Not to Establish Service to Fairmont on April 1, Official Says

DEVELOPMENTS SUGGESTED

The Pennsylvania Railroad is not making preparations for running through passenger trains to Fairmont beginning with April 1, the date set in a story given out within the last few weeks. Whether the Monongahela Railway company will operate a through train to Fairmont from Brownsville is a different matter, according to a Monongahela Division P. R. R. official.

It is considered that if the Monongahela Railway does not operate trains on April 1 from Brownsville to Fairmont, they will be operating within a few days time. Among some railroad men it is now considered that the Monongahela Railway will make connections at Brownsville with the Pennsylvania and P. & L. E. until the spring schedule of each of the latter is adopted.

Numerous changes have been made in plans since the first talk of through trains to Fairmont, and there have been several unexpected delays, of which the present one may prove to be a fair sample.

TRAMP BADLY BURNED SLEEPING IN AN OVEN

Man at Brownsville Has Horrible Experience. When His Private "Bedroom" Becomes Overheated—Evidently Hard Man to Awake.

To be almost baked alive was the uncomfortable experience of John Gygos, a tramp, who with two companions crawled into an empty oven at the Century Coal and Coke Company works, near Brownsville, one night this week, for the night's sleep.
As a result of his snooze Gygos is in the Uniontown hospital suffering from burns of the back and head and is in a dangerous condition.

An oven adjoining the one in which the three crawled was afire when the trio entered their haven for the night.
The fire had not penetrated to the lower part of the oven, however, and the temperature was quite comfortable. Gygos placed his back against the side next to the burning oven and went to his sleep.

He was still snoring when his companions awoke. The place was stifling and the heat so intense as to make living almost impossible. Gygos was quickly aroused and the trio staggered out to the open.

The man walked into Brownsville and from there was brought to Uniontown hospital. His two companions, whose names were not learned, suffered slight burns.

of the Famous Players Film Co., a five part film subject of "Mistress Nell," the internationally famous drama by George C. Hazelton, which is the main attraction at Coyle theatre, Tuesday on the Paramount program.

Nell Gwyn, the character portrayed by Mary Pickford is one of the greatest and sweetest of history's heroines. The character of Nell offers Miss Pickford many interesting opportunities to prove her wonderful versatility as a screen actress. Among the many admirable sets that comprise the production, one stands out more prominently than the others, excellent as they are. This is the spa-

Sermon Preached Friday Night at Tabernacle on "Tenting Toward Sodom"

VISITORS FROM OUT OF TOWN

Monongahela Delegation and Monesen Brigade Present to Attend Meeting—Musical Program Interesting Feature.

"You get a man out of the mud and the devil has a man there to pull him back into it," declared the evangelist at the Fifth street tabernacle Friday night in his sermon on "Tenting Toward Sodom." His sermon was an able presentation of the story of the experiences of Lot, the Bible character.

Friday night was observed as Monongahela and Monessen night. A delegation of about 50 persons was present from the First Baptist church of Monongahela. They had prepared a song, "The Touch of His Hand in Mind" and sang it. Headed by J. E. Newcomer, the commanding officer, the Monessen brigade came.
Not content with simply having them there to occupy a special section, Song Leader Rockwell called the brigade to the platform to go through some of their maneuvers. They as well as the Monongahela folk were heartily applauded.

As on previous nights of the week music was an interesting and enjoyable feature. Mrs. Roland Todd and Mrs. W. J. Minges sang solos, and a duet was sung by Miss Isabella Dorbritz and Charles Clirhue. After the service when the invitation was given there were a number of converts.

Tomorrow is to be a big day, the chief feature to be the afternoon address by the evangelist on the subject, "Booze." In the evening he will speak on "Satan's Defeat," a sermon that was announced for delivery on previous Sunday evenings and changed at the last minute. Tonight the sermon theme will be "Shall We Know Each Other in Heaven?"

The tabernacle campaign is now drawing near to its end. About one more week and the campaign will be over. So far there have been about 550 conversions. So far Monday has been a rest night but on next Monday there will be a presentation at the tabernacle of "The Passion Play." Evangelist Minges will lecture on the subject, and his talk will be illustrated with stereopticon views.

Tenting Toward Sodom.
The evangelist took his subject Friday night from the Old Testament and said: Abraham had a brother named Aaron. There came a time when Abraham's brother was taken sick and as Abraham was very dear to his brother, Aaron called him to his bedside and said, "Abraham, I am going to leave this world, and I have a boy and this boy is very dear to me and I want to leave him with you. I want you to care for this boy; wherever you go take him with you and be a father to the boy." Abraham knelt by his brother's bedside and said, "I certainly will be a father to the boy; I will see that nothing goes wrong with this boy as long as our God prospers us."

One day Abraham said, "Now, my boy, I'll tell you what I am going to do for you. See that spotted calf?

You can throttle down to one mile per hour on high gear without causing the motor to labor—yet touch the mile-a-minute mark with ease, in America's Greatest "Light Six."

To convince him that the perfectly balanced motor of America's Greatest "Light Six" would permit throttling down to one mile an hour on high, at our request a business man got out, walked alongside the car, walked around the car, and walked backwards in front of the car—while it was moving on high gear during a demonstration.

This low throttling feature—more than anything else—makes America's Greatest "Light Six" the safest car for women to drive.

ANCIENT GREEK TRAINING.

What It Did For the Boy Physically and Intellectually.

The manner in which the Athenians brought up their children is worth remembering.

At seven years of age the Athenian had entered the palestra, which was essentially a playground. All the first and better part of the day was spent in gymnastics, dancing, games and play. In the afternoon there were singing, some writing, some reading, all in the open air, and then came a long period of play again. Such was the schooling of the Greek lad up to the age of ten or eleven, and it did not differ essentially up to the age of sixteen, except in the severity of the exercises.

And yet the world has not ceased to marvel at the results of the Greek education. It produced the highest type of man, physically and intellectually, that the world has ever seen, which Galton says was as far in advance of the modern Englishman as the modern Englishman is in advance of the native African.

In physical beauty, courage and patriotism, in philosophy, literature, architecture and art, the Greeks have been the unsurpassed models of the ages and are still the inspiration of our schools today. But they placed the emphasis upon hygiene, exercise, games and play, which are too much neglected in these days. —Kansas City Star.

THE PLANET MERCURY.

It Is Difficult to Weigh, and Its Orbit Is Very Eccentric.

Though Mercury is one of the smallest of the planets, it is perhaps the most troublesome of all to the astronomer.

It lies so close to the sun that it is seen but seldom in comparison with the other great planets. Its orbit is very eccentric, and it experiences disturbances by the attraction of other bodies in a way not yet fully understood.

A special difficulty has also been found in the attempt to place Mercury in the weighing scales. We can weigh the whole earth, we can weigh the sun, the moon and even Jupiter and other planets, but Mercury presents difficulties of a peculiar character. Le Verrier, however, succeeded in devising a method of weighing it.

He demonstrated that our earth is attracted by this planet, and he showed how the amount of attraction may be disclosed by observations of the sun, so that from an examination of the observations he made an approximate determination of the mass of Mercury.

Le Verrier's result indicated that the weight of the planet was about the fifteenth part of the weight of the earth. In other words, if our earth was placed in a balance and fifteen globes, each equal to Mercury, were laid in the other the scales would hang evenly. —"Story of the Heavens."

Spain's Arbitration Court.

"The most unique and interesting institution for the settlement of civil suits in Spain," writes Thomas W. Palmer, Jr., in Case and Comment, "is the arbitration court. All contentions or disputes before or after the commencement of litigation, no matter how far advanced, can be submitted to an arbitration tribunal by agreement of all the interested parties. The exceptions to this are those suits involving political and civil rights, etc., or those matters in which the state is especially concerned. The arbitrators, whose number must not exceed five, are lawyers of twenty-five or more years of age and in full enjoyment of civil rights. In some instances the arbitrators may be laymen (amiables compo-nedores). Appeal is made from the arbitration direct to the territorial appeal court. This method of deciding claims has proved successful and is employed considerably."

Speculative Life Insurance.

A mania for speculative insurances on the lives of public personages prevailed in England during the eighteenth century. Warren Hastings, the pretender, the rebel lord or the unfortunate Admiral Byng answered equally the purpose of speculation, and there were also regular quotations on the lives of notorious highwaymen. Sir Robert Walpole at one period of his career, when his life was endangered by popular tumults, was insured for many thousands, and when George II. fought at Dettingen 25 per cent was paid against his return. Such speculative insurances were, however, largely checked by the gambling act of 1774, which made insurable interest a necessary condition for a valid policy.

He Knew.

The professor of the class in English history was telling his young men of the impressive age about the Elizabethan era when, suddenly turning to one of the young men, who seemed to be in a dream, with a faraway gaze, he said:

"And how old was Elizabeth, Mr. Case?"

"Elizabeth last birthday," came the instant reply.

The Largest Reptile.

The largest existing reptile is the man eating salt water crocodile of southern Asia and Australia, which, when full grown, measures thirty feet in length from end of nose to tip of tail. One man makes hardly more than a mouthful for this fearsome creature.

She Knew It.

He—Didn't it ever occur to you that I was in love with you? She—Certainly; haven't you ever noticed me laughing to myself?—Topeka Journal.
